Leitura do Livro de Isaias 50,5.9a

O “Servo do Senhor” é desprezado e perseguido por todos. No cumprimento da sua missão, ele sujeita-se às humilhações e ao sofrimento, mantendo sempre uma firmeza inabalável e uma serena e alegre confiança em Deus. Esta misteriosa figura que aparece, com muita frequência, no livro de Isaias, anuncia Cristo na Sua Paixão, abandonado pelos discípulos e pelas multidões, mas sempre fiel à Sua missão redentora, consciente como estava de que a salvação passa pela Cruz.

Salmo Responsorial: Caminharei na terra dos vivos na presença do Senhor.

Leitura da Epistola de São Tiago 2,14-18

Ter fé, ou seja, crer, não é só, nem principalmente, admitir um determinado Credo. É, essencialmente, estar em atitude de acolhimento à inspiração e graças de Deus. É, ainda, aceitar o compromisso vital da própria fé que não é outro senão o da correspondência ao amor de Deus, emanando daí o amor ao próximo realizado e vivido em obras.

Evangelho de Nosso Senhor Jesus Cristo Segundo São Marcos 8,27-35

Jesus apresenta-se, pela primeira vez, aos Seus discípulos, como o Messias-sofredor que vai morrer pela total libertação e salvação do povo. Esta concepção do Messias-sofredor não é conhecida deles. Não era isso que esperavam. Como todo o povo, os discípulos aguardavam um libertador que subtraísse o povo ao jugo romano e o fizesse dominador de todas as nações. Opõem-se portando às palavras confidenciais de Jesus. Ele, porém, acrescenta: “o que quiser ser Meu discípulo, deve seguir-me até à cruz”.

LITURGY

St. Mary's Parish

Twenty Fourth Sunday

Psalm: I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living!

We have now entered Part Two of Mark's Gospel (8:27-16:8). After having been consistently rejected and misunderstood despite all he has said and done, Jesus starts to proclaim the necessity of the suffering, death, and resurrection of the Son of Man in God's plan.

The First Reading talks about the Servant of the Lord who suffers, not in spite of his innocence, but because of it. But he is sustained in all his trials by the firm belief that God is with him. The Suffering Servant represents the many suffering just people. The New Testament sees Jesus as the Suffering Servant par excellence.

In the Gospel we have Peter's profession of faith. In response to that confession, Jesus makes a threefold disclosure: that the Messiah must suffer, that his disciples must be prepared to share his suffering, and that his and their suffering will lead to ultimate glory.
