Os judeus viveram sempre a lei a seu modo. Preocupa-os mais o ritualismo exterior, visível e, como tal, objecto da apreciação positiva e honrosa, por parte dos vizinhos, do que a interiorização da mesma lei. Orgulhosos, de si mesmos não aceitam Cristo como enviado de Deus. Interessa-lhes uma vida fácil e Cristo prega a renúncia e a humildade. Em muitas circunstâncias Jesus os condena publicamente. Se Ele, único sacerdote, se fez servo para todos, sendo Deus, também eles, povo eleito, deviam, no íntimo do seu coração, abrir-se a todos os homens, numa conversão interior de acolhimento aos seus irmãos. Deste modo se realizaria a libertação da lei ritualista para o amor autêntico e verdadeiro que conduz a Deus através dos homens.

Leitura do Livro de Jeremias 31,7-9 O povo judeu encontrava-se sob o jugo dos assírios, depois da tomada da Samaria, em 721. Não admira pois que, para ele, salvação seja a libertação do domínio estrangeiro. Contudo a mensagem do profeta Jeremias é muito mais profunda. A esperança depositada no Senhor fá-lo viver, entecipadamente, a recuperação da dignidade humana, a libertação do pecado, a união do homem a Deus, seu Pai, realizada no Messias prometido.

Salmo Responsorial: O Senhor fez maravilhas em favor do seu povo.

Leitura da Epistola aos Hebreus 5,1-6 Autêntica e verdadeiramente há um só sacerdote, Jesus Cristo, reunindo em si o poder de Deus e a fraqueza dos homens. Torna-se deste modo, mediador único entre Deus e os homens. Do sacerdócio de Cristo participam o padre, pela ordenação e, a seu modo, o cristão, pelo baptismo. O padre vive no meio dos homens para melhor compreender os seus problemas. Segregar-se da comunidade é clericalismo.

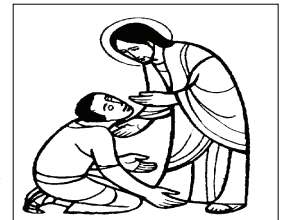

Evangelho de Nosso Senhor Jesus Cristo Segundo São Marcos 10,46-52 Todos somos, em certa medida, cegos. Só pela fé podemos descobrir o sinal de Deus a indicar-nos o caminho mais conveniente. O cego Bartimeu foi curado porque acreditou na presença de Jesus Cristo e n'Ele viu o Filho de Deus.

Thirtieth Sunday

October 24, 2021

The First Reading carries a message of joyful hope for the exiles in Babylon. The Lord will save what's left of his people and bring them back from exile. Even the most helpless will share in the joy of this great event.

Psalm: The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

In Mark's mind Jesus is the one that brings salvation to Israel. His healings are a sign of the coming of the kingdom (Gospel).

The story of Bartimeus is as much a call story as a healing story. The expression followed him along the way doesn't simply mean that he joined the crowd on the road to Jerusalem.

There can be no doubt what Mark intends: Bartimeus followed Jesus on the way of Christian discipleship. He is presented as a model of faith. It seems that the story was used in the early Church as a model of encouragement to believers and would-be believers.

Church Consultation and Reform

Pope Francis launched a two year process to consult every Catholic parish around the world on the future direction of the Church.

In the “listening phase” of this process, people in parishes and dioceses around the world will be able to discuss a wide range of issues faced by Catholics today.

Pope Francis said it was important to hear from those who are often on the fringes of local Church life such as women, pastoral workers and members of consultative bodies. We are all invited to reflect on the future of the Church.

Parish Council

On Thursday, October 28th, we will have a meeting of our Parish Council. The meeting will be from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. in the parish hall.

R.C.I.A. (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults)

This program is designed for those interested in learning about the Catholic faith and wish to join the Church. We have four sessions booked starting Saturdays on Oct. 30th, Nov. 6, 13, and 20th.

The sessions will be held in the church. For more information, please contact the office or approach one of the priests before or after Mass.
