

All Souls Day

In All Souls day we remember those who have died, and especially, those we have loved. We also pray for those who have wronged us, or that we have wronged. This day reminds us that when we die our lives are not ended simply transformed: I have a new home, glorious and eternal. The Church has always prayed for the dead. At every Mass we pray for those who have gone before us.

2nd Eucharist Prayer: "Bring all the departed into the light of your presence"

3rd Eucharist Prayer: "Welcome into your Kingdom our departed brothers and sisters and all who left this world in your friendship"

4th Eucharist Prayer: "Remember those who died in the peace of Christ and all the Dead whose faith is known to you alone"

Today we pray for the dead because one day we will be one of them.

The Church has encouraged prayer for the dead from the earliest time, as an act of charity. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

XXXI Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 30, 2022

First Reading (Wis 11:22-12:2) God, who created the world out of love, overlooks people’s sins so that they can repent.

Psalm: I will bless your name for ever, my King and my God.

Second Reading (2Thess 1;11-2;2) Paul urges the Thessalonians to be worthy of their call, and assures them that the Second Coming of Christ has not yet taken place.

Gospel (Lk 19:1-10) We hear the story of the conversion of the rich tax collector Zacchaeus. At that time tax-collectors were put in the same category as thieves, murders and prostitutes. Furthermore, because they worked for the Romans, they were regarded as traitors, and treated as outcasts. We can understand, then, how the good people of Jericho were offended when Jesus went to the house of Zacchaeus. But Jesus justified his action by saying that Zacchaeus too was a son of Abraham, and therefore entitled to the mercy of God as any other Israelite. And he declared that it was to seek out and save people like Zacchaeus that he had come. Touched by the kindness of Jesus, Zacchaeus saw the error of his ways and resolved to change. In this episode we again see Luke’s concern for the proper use of wealth—it should be distributed to the poor.

Gather Your People

Gather your people, O Lord.
Gather your people, O Lord.
One bread, one body, one spirit of love.

Gather your people, O Lord.
Draw us forth to the table of life:
brothers and sisters,
each of us called to walk in your light.

We are parts of the body of Christ,
needing each other,
each of the gifts the Spirit provides.

No more harm on the mountain of God:
swords into plowshares.
Free us, O Lord, from hardness of heart.

O God, Our Help In Ages Past

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

You Satisfy the Hungry Heart

You satisfy the hungry heart
with gift of finest wheat,
Come give to us, O saving Lord,
the bread of life to eat.

As when the shepherd calls his sheep,
They know and heed his voice;
So when You call Your family, Lord,
We follow and rejoice.

With joyful lips we sing to You,
Our praise and gratitude,
That You should count us worthy Lord,
To share this heavenly food.

The mystery of Your presence Lord,
No mortal tongue can tell;
Whom all the world cannot contain
Comes in our hearts to dwell.

You give yourself to us, O Lord,
Then selfless let us be,
To serve each other in Your name
In truth and charity.

Glory and Praise to Our God

Glory and praise to our God
Who alone gives light to our days
Many are the blessings He bears
To those who trust in His ways.

We the daughters and sons of Him
Who built the valleys and plains
Praise the wonders our God has done
In every heart that sings.

In His wisdom He strengthens us
Like gold that's tested in fire
Though the power of sin prevails
Our God is there to save.
