

SAINT ANTHONY

Saint Anthony, one of the most popular saints of the church, was born and raised in a wealthy family in Lisbon, on August 15th, 1195. At the age of 35 he died on June, 13th, 1231 in Padua, Italy. His baptismal name was Fernando Martins de Bulhões.

Educated in Lisbon and Coimbra, he became a Franciscan friar with the name of Anthony. While in Coimbra the bodies of five Franciscans whom he had met and later had been beheaded in Morocco were brought to Coimbra to be buried as martyrs in the Abbey of Santa Cruz.

At once Anthony decided to become a martyr himself. But no sooner had he arrived in Morocco than he became so ill that he was forced to turn around, set sail back to Portugal in hope of regaining his health. However, the return ship was blown off course and landed instead in Sicily.

In Italy Anthony was assigned to a small hospice for lay brothers at Monte Paolo. It was a lowly assignment, befitting a brother who, up to this time had shown no remarkable talents. Eventually word quickly spread about Anthony’s gifts, profound learning and talent as a preacher, that Anthony was sent on a preaching mission all over Italy. Thousands flocked to his open-air sermons and men were reported to give up gambling and drinking after listening to him. Criminals were reformed and feuding enemies were reconciled.

Anthony’s visits created a spiritual revival. He attacked the tyranny of the powerful and was unsparing when it came to the failings of the clergy. So successful were his exhortations to charity that he earned many titles: “Friend of the Poor”, “il Santo”, “Mio Dolce Santo”. “Meu Santo António”, etc.

Weary from his exhausting mission, Anthony died young, in Padua, on June 13th, 1231, before turning 36. He is a beloved saint well known all over the Christian world.

He is the patron saint of the poor and oppressed. Alms given to seek his intercession are often referred to as “St. Anthony’s bread”.

Most Holy Trinity

June 4, 2023

First Reading (Ex 34:4-6.8-9) God reveals himself to Moses on Mount Sinai as a God who is faithful to his promises and rich in tenderness and compassion.

Responsorial Psalm: Glory and praise for ever.

Second Reading (2 Cor 13:11-13) Paul encourages the Corinthians to live in peace and love. The reading contains a Trinitarian blessing which is used as a greeting at Mass.

Gospel (Jn 3:16-18) God has shown his love for us by sending his Son to save us all. All who believe in him will be saved.

Sing A New Song

Sing a new song unto the Lord
let your song be sung
from mountains high.
Sing a new song unto the Lord,
singing alleluia.

Yahweh's people dance for joy.
O come before the Lord.
And play for him on glad tambourines,
and let your trumpet sound.

Glad my soul for I have seen
the glory of the Lord.
The trumpet sounds
the dead shall be raised.
I know my Savior lives.

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind but now I see.

Tw'as grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved,
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

I Am the Bread of Life

I am the bread of life.
He who comes to me shall not hunger;
he who believes in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me
unless the Father draw him.

And I will raise him up,
and I will raise him up,
and I will raise him up on the last day.

The bread that I will give
is my flesh for the life of the world,
and he who eats of this bread,
he shall live for ever,
he shall live for ever.

Unless you eat
of the flesh of the Son of Man
and drink of his blood,
and drink of his blood,
you shall not have life within you.

How Great Thou Art

Oh Lord, my God
When I, in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin.
